

Reception had a great time at the allotments! We observed changes that had happened since our previous visit in Autumn. We saw that lots of things had started to grow and we were able to spot lots of different flower's blooming! We were really excited to also get to see the start of the new Orchard being planted and we can't wait to visit again for a picnic!

